RICHMOND, VA – Qualified Virginia voters have until 5pm Tuesday, February 23, 2016, to submit a request to their local voter registration office to receive an absentee ballot by mail for the March 1, 2016, presidential primary election. “The Citizen Portal is a quick and easy way for Virginia voters to submit their absentee ballot application without being concerned about delays with mail delivery or uncertainty about emails or fax transmissions being received on time,” said Edgardo Cortés, the Commissioner of Elections. Absentee Ballot applications can also be submitted by email, fax, or mail as long as they are received by the 5pm deadline.

There are 19 acceptable reasons for voting absentee and all eligible Virginia voters are encouraged to take advantage of this program. Voters may find office hours and contact information for their local voter registration office, see what is on their ballot, apply for an absentee ballot by mail, check their absentee ballot status, and more at ELECT’s Citizen Portal available at <https://vote.elections.virginia.gov/VoterInformation>.
